NSBAR's 2010 Mini Convention

Feb. 18, 2010 @ The Hilton Northbrook

Markets are changing and many of the old methods of doing business are no longer working. To thrive in today's market you have to learn to be quick and adapt to fluctuations in the way we do business. There's never been a more important time to invest in education and networking for your business.

It's time to evolve!

Re-evaluate your strategies for the new market, recommit to new real estate goals, and join an event where you can reconnect with your colleagues

Just a FEW of the topics which will be covered:

- How to get a loan approved and keep all of your commission on a short sale.
 - Protecting your clients while processing a short sale.
 - How to put a rental together that will protect all parties.
 - How to make money social networking.
- A panel of top agents will share their tips on "How to Make Good Money in This Market".

If you are ready to develop and maximize real estate opportunities that work in the midst of a changing economy, this event is for you!

Our convention will provide YOU with the techniques to facilitate YOUR SUCCESS!
