The Best Ways To Showcase Your Entryway

We've discussed curb appeal and can't stress the importance of it, however what happens when a potential buyer walks into the house is just as important. The foyer is your second chance to make a first impression (if such a thing exists). Houses that feel warm and inviting sell faster than homes that don't. It's time to start sprucing up those foyer's and these tips are the best way.

4 Easy Architectural Details To Add To Your Home

Higher priced homes are filled with beautiful archways, columns and architectural details, however most first time home buyers end up in the boring boxed look. If you're buying or selling one of these homes there are easy ways to spruce it up and add more details. When selling it will give you the edge over other homes in your area. Many of these projects can be done yourself with minimal skill and money.
